HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

1. Learned counsel for the parties submits that the claim in the present petition is for regularization of the services of the petitioner under 2014 Policy.

2. Learned State counsel submits that the said policy has already been set aside by this Court while passing order in CWP No.17206 of 2014 titled as Yogesh Tyagi and another vs. State of Haryana and others on 31.05.2018, though the said judgment is pending adjudication before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.

3. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record with their able assistance.

4. Keeping in view the fact that the 2014 Policy on the basis of which the regularization is being sought by the petitioner, has already been set aside and as of now, the dispute is pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, the present petition is disposed of with a direction that in case after the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, any right accrues in favour of the petitioner to seek regularization, the petitioner will be free to avail remedy including filing of the fresh petition or by reviving the present petition.
