AVNEESH JHINGAN, J (ORAL)

1. The writ petition in the nature of Certiorari is filed seeking quashing of orders dated 15.7.2020 and 11.8.2021 cancelling the Arms licence and dismissing the appeal respectively.

2. The petitioner was possessing Arms licence No.3288/DM/KTL/March/2011 since 2011. On involvement of petitioner in FIR No. 101 dated 29.4.2020, under Sections 323, 506, 188, 34, 269 IPC and Section 51 of Disaster Management Act, registered at Police Station Sadar Kaithal and FIR No. 144 dated 7.6.2015, under Sections 61 of Excise Act, 1914 registered at Police Station Garhi District Jind, the application of the petitioner for renewal was declined and licence cancelled. The appeal against the order of cancellation was rejected, hence, the present petition.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in FIR No. 144 dated 7.6.2015, the offence was compounded. In FIR No. 101 dated 29.4.2020, challan was presented only under Section 323, 506 read with Section 34 IPC. He submits that there is no allegation of misuse of weapon.

4. Learned State Counsel defends the impugned orders.

5. Section 17 of the Arms Act, 1959 (for short 'the Act') deals with suspension or revocation of licence.

6. Section 17 (3) and (5) is reproduced below:

'17. Variation, suspension and revocation of licences.—

(3) The licensing authority may by order in writing suspend a licence for such period as it thinks fit or revoke a licence—

(a) if the licensing authority is satisfied that the holder of the licence is prohibited by this Act or by any other law for the time being in force, from acquiring, having in his possession or carrying any arms or ammunition, or is of unsound mind, or is for any reason unfit for a licence under this Act; or

(b) if the licensing authority deems it necessary for the security of the public peace or for public safety to suspend or revoke the licence; or

(c) if the licence was obtained by the suppression of material information or on the basis of wrong information provided by the holder of the licence or any other person on his behalf at the time of applying for it; or

(d) if any of the conditions of the licence has been contravened; or

(e) if the holder of the licence has failed to comply with a notice under sub-section (1) requiring him to deliver up the licence.

(5) Where the licensing authority makes an order varying a licence under sub-section (1) or an order suspending or revoking a licence under sub-section (3), it shall record in writing the reasons therefor and furnish to the holder of the licence on demand a brief statement of the same unless in any case the licensing authority is of the opinion that it will not be in the public interest to furnish such statement.

7. Sub-section (3) stipulates eventualities in Clauses (a) to (e) for suspending or revoking the licence.

(a) If there is prohibition under this Act or any other law for acquiring or possessing the arms and ammunition or licence holder is of unsound mind or unfit for any other reason.

(b) If it is necessary for security of public peace or public safety.

(c) Where licence was obtained by suppression of material information or if information provided was wrong.

(d) For contravention of the conditions of licence.

(e) Failure to comply with the notice under Section 17(1) of the Act.

8. Sub-section (5) makes it obligatory for the licensing authority to record reasons in writing while varying the conditions of licence suspending or revoking the licence. The reasons are to be furnished to licence holder on demand, the exception being in case licensing authority is of opinion that it will not be in public interest to give such reasons.

9. From the perusal of impugned orders, it is forth coming that the licence was cancelled on the ground that the petitioner is involved in two FIRs. There is no reason or basis mentioned for bringing the case within the ambit of Section 17(3) (b) of the Act.

10. The impugned orders are set aside and the matter is remanded back to respondent No.3 to decide the issue afresh in accordance with law and after providing opportunity of hearing to the petitioner.

11. Petitioner is directed to appear before respondent No.3 on 27.3.2023 at 11:00 AM.

12. Petition is allowed.
13. Since the main case has been decided, pending application, if any is rendered infructuous.
