Rajbir Sehrawat, J. (Oral)

On the last date of hearing, the following order was passed:-

“Since the case is of burnt category and the paper book as well as names of learned counsel for the parties are not available, issue notice to the parties as per memo of parties of the instant appeal as well award passed by the Tribunal as is available on record to ensure representation for 25.05.2023. To be shown in the list of urgent cases.”

Pursuant to the aforesaid order, notices were sent to the appellants as well as the respondents. However, neither the appellants could be served on account of incomplete addresses nor the respondents. Even respondent No. 1 is stated to have expired.

Since there is no one available on behalf of the parties to pursue the appeal, therefore, this Court does not find any reason to continue the present appeal any more.

Dismissed for non-prosecution.

IOIN FAO 1022-1988

Since the main appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution, therefore, IOIN also stands disposed of as infructuous.
