TA No.173 of 2023 (O&M)

Date of decision: 10.02.2023

Amandeep Kaur

...Petitioner(s)

Gagandeep Singh and others

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present:- Mr. Kanwaljeet Singh Brar, Advocate for the petitioner.

NIDHI GUPTA, J.(Oral)

1. Prayer in this petition filed by petitioner wife is for transfer of Civil Suit No.331/2022 titled 'Gagandeep vs. Amandeep Kaur' filed by respondent No.1-husband pending in the Court of Civil Judge, Sr. Div., Fatehgarh Sahib to a court of competent jurisdiction at Bathinda.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner, inter alia, submits that:

i) that the parties were married on 12.06.2020.

ii) that no child was born out of the wedlock.

iii) that the petitioner is living with her parents at Bathinda and her father is 75% disabled.

iv) that distance between place of residence and place of proceedings is 230 kms. (one side).

v) that the following cases are also pending between the parties at Bathinda:-

a. Petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C.

b. Complaint before CJM, Bathinda.

3. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

4. A perusal of the Civil Suit (Annexure P3) filed by the respondent-husband against the petitioner shows that the respondent has filed the said civil "suit for recovery of damages as may be determined by this Court after taking the evidence for loss of reputations, unwanted harassment, loss of carrier and mental agony and financial loss suffered by the plaintiff having been caused by the defendants alongwith interest at the rate of 18% per annum from the date of filing of suit till the final realization of the amount including all the costs etc.”

5. Accordingly, in view of the facts as canvassed above by learned counsel for the petitioner, as also the fact that the legal position in such like cases as the present one, is well established, I deem it just and proper to allow the present petition. In this regard, judgment of the Hon’ble Supreme Court rendered in N.C.V. Aishwarya vs A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha,” 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, is most relevant wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has held as under:-

“9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

6. Further reliance can be placed upon the judgments in “Sumita Singh vs Kumar Sanjay”, 2002 SC 396 and “Rajani Kishor

Pardeshivs Kishor Babulal Pardeshi”, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed that “while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

7. Even this Court in number of cases has followed the aforesaid principle of law. Accordingly, it is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case, at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider the family condition of the wife, the custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important the convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

8. After going through the entire paperbook, considering the fact that issuance of notice to the respondent has the consequences of staying further proceedings before the trial Court, otherwise the petitioner-wife will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in case, notice of motion is issued, even the respondent-husband has to bear the litigation expenses and in view of the judgments i.e. Sumita Singh’s case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi’s case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya’s case (supra) passed by the Hon’ble Supreme Court, this Court deems it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

- a) Civil Suit No.331/2022 titled 'Gagandeep vs. Amandeep Kaur' filed by respondent No.1-husband pending in the Court of Civil Judge, Sr. Div., Fatehgarh Sahib is transferred to a court of competent jurisdiction at Bathinda.
 - b) The Id. District Judge, Fatehgarh Sahib is directed to transfer complete record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Bathinda.
 - c) The parties are directed to appear before the District & Sessions Judge, Bathinda on 01.03.2023.
 - d) The District Judge, Bathinda will assign the said petition to the Court of competent jurisdiction.
9. The concerned Court at Bathinda will make all endeavour to refer the case before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre for exploring the possibility of some amicable settlement between the parties.
10. The Court concerned, where the litigation pending between the parties, will accommodate them with one date in one calendar month.
11. However, liberty is granted to the respondent to revive this petition, if he intends to contest the same, provided that:-

- (a) The respondent No.1 will clear all arrears of maintenance amount, if any, in terms of any petition filed by the petitioner either under Section 125 Cr.P.C. or Section 12 of the Domestic Violence Act or Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act.

(b) The respondent No.1 will file an affidavit giving undertaking to pay Rs.1,000/- per day, to the petitioner for attending the Court proceedings at Fatehgarh Sahib on each and every date of hearing.

(c) The respondent No.1 will bring a demand draft of Rs.25,000/-, drawn in favour of petitioner, towards the litigation expenses to pursue the case at Courts, Fatehgarh Sahib in case the respondent opts to contest this petition.

12. I am supported in the above by decisions rendered by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in TA No. 1315/2022, Rohini Arora v Nitin Talwar; TA No. 1322 of 2022, Jaswinder Kaur v Gurvinderjeet Singh; and TA No. 1323 of 2022, Usha Rani v Karmajit Singh.

13. As already noticed above, since the petition is being disposed of without issuing notice to the respondent, accordingly, in these peculiar circumstances, in order to ensure appearance of the parties before the District Judge, Bathinda on 01.03.2023, it is directed that a copy of this order be sent to the respondent(s) through registered post, besides sending a copy of this order to the District Judges concerned through e-mail. Petitioner through her counsel, present in the Court, is directed to ensure her appearance accordingly.

Disposed of.
