Versus

State of Haryana and another

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AVNEESH JHINGAN

Present: Ms. Sukhveer Kaur, Advocate for the petitioners.
Mr. Rajiv Sidhu, Deputy Advocate General, Haryana.
Mr. K. S. Malik, Advocate for respondent No. 2.

AVNEESH JHINGAN, J (Oral):

1. This petition under Section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure is filed seeking quashing of FIR No. 304 dated 12.11.2018, under Sections 323, 325 and 34 IPC, registered at Police Station, Civil Lines, Rohtak and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise.
2. As per the FIR, on 18.9.2018, the complainant was called at Women Police Station with regard to a complaint where the petitioners in connivance with each other gave beatings to him.
3. The parties with the intervention of respectables have compromised the matter.
4. On 13.2.2023, the parties were directed to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial court for getting their statements recorded with regard to compromise.
5. The report dated 22.2.2023 is received stating that the compromise is genuine, voluntary, without any coercion or undue influence and there are two accused (petitioners herein) and none of them has been declared proclaimed offender.
6. Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others vs.

State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, has held:-

“There is no statutory bar in Cr.P.C. which affects inherent power of this Court under Section 482. The power of quashing is not limited to matrimonial cases alone.”

7. The Supreme Court in Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Karmur and others v. State of Gujarat and another, 2017 AIR (SC) 4843 laid down the broad principles governing the exercise of powers for quashing of FIR. It was held that the power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is to be exercised by the High Court to secure the ends of justice, to prevent abuse of any process of law and in cases where in view of the compromise the possibility of conviction is remote and continuation of proceeding will cause oppression and prejudice.

8. The parties are related to each other. With the intervention of friends and relatives, the parties have decided to forget and forgive and to save their relations to an extent possible. No useful purpose would be served by continuing with the trial. Due to compromise, there are bleak chances of conviction. To meet the ends of justice, the FIR mentioned above and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

9. The petition is allowed.
