1. The correctness of the concurrent findings of fact arrived at by the courts below while decreeing the suit filed by the plaintiffs is assailed in this regular second appeal by defendant no.1 through his LR's.

2. It has come on record that defendant no.1 and 2 entered into an agreement to sell with the plaintiffs and since they were unable to perform their part of the contract, the defendant no.1 in order to refund the amount gave two cheques of Rs.3,50,000/- each, which were dishonoured on presentation for encashment.

3. Both the courts have held that defendant no.1 was operating through defendant no.2 and therefore, he gave two cheques in order to refund the amount.

4. The learned counsel representing the appellant though made sincere attempt, however, failed to draw the attention of the court to any substantive error in reading or non-reading of evidence. He has failed to draw the attention of the court to any perversity or manifest error in the orders passed.
