M/S P.K. VERMA AND COMPANY

.....Petitioner

VERSUS

STATE OF PUNJAB AND OTHERS

.....Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD S. BHARDWAJ

Present:- Mr. B.S. Jaswal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Saurav Verma, Addl. A.G. Punjab.

VINOD S. BHARDWAJ, J. (Oral)

Prayer in the instant civil writ petition filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, 1950 is for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to pay interest on account of delay in disbursement of the payment qua works executed by the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner had executed various works assigned to it from time to time and there has never been any complaint against the due and proper execution of the works. The bill regarding the satisfactory execution of the work was duly approved by the competent Authority, however, the payment in that regard has not been released. The petitioner approached the respondent authorities on a number of occasions for disbursement of the outstanding payment and even a legal notice was also submitted before the respondent-Authority, but all in vain. The present petitioner thus seeks the release of interest on account of delay in disbursement of the due payment.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, however, fairly submits that the petitioner is willing to withdraw the present petition enabling him to avail alternative efficacious remedy of approaching the Civil Court for seeking the aforesaid relief since various judgments of the High Court have held the petitioners (in the concerned petitions) to be entitled for interest in the cases where there is an inexplicable delay in release of the due payment. The petitioner also seeks liberty to raise all such pleas before the Civil Court and/or any other competent Forum/Authority in appropriate proceedings and at appropriate stage.

Accordingly, without commenting anything on the merits of the case, the present petition is disposed of as withdrawn with the liberty as aforesaid.
