Krishna Devi and others" pending in the Court of Sh. Dinesh Kumar Wadhwa, learned Additional District Judge, Bathinda, was dismissed.

2. At the outset, learned counsel for respondents, appears on advance knowledge of listing of aforesaid application, and states that he is under instructions not to object to listing of both the aforesaid first appeals i.e., Civil Appeal bearing CMA-65-2021 dated 25.08.2021 (filed on 108.08.2021) titled "Hari Ram and others Vs. Reena Garg) and Civil Appeal bearing CMA-74-2022 dated 30.07.2022 titled "Reena Garg Vs. Krishna Devi and others" before any of the First Appellate Courts in the district in order to avoid possibility of any conflicting views.

3. Said suggestion is acceptable to learned counsel for petitioner.

4. In view of the aforesaid, revision petition is disposed of with a request to learned District Judge, Bathinda for listing of both aforesaid first appeals before any one Judge whoever he may think appropriate. However, it is made clear that listing of both the first appeals before same Judge would not mean consolidation of cases and both cases will be decided on its own merits.

5. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
