CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ BAJAJ

Present: Ms. Gracia, Jain, Advocate for
Mr. Aakash Juneja, Advocate for the petitioners.

MANOJ BAJAJ, J.

Petitioners (workmen) have filed the above separate writ petitions under Article 226 Constitution of India seeking a writ in the nature of Certiorari for quashing the respective impugned award(s) dated 27.08.2019 passed by Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Panipat, whereby their claim for reinstatement with full back wages and continuity of service, was rejected. Further, prayer is for issuance of a writ of mandamus directing the respondent No.1 to reinstate the petitioner(s) in service with continuity and full back wages.

The impugned award(s) have been passed on reference numbers: 47/2015, 53/2015 and 78/2015 respectively, which were instituted on the same date i.e. 13.07.2005 and all were decided on 27.08.2019 through separate award(s). The facts pleaded by the workman in their respective claim statement(s) against their termination are also common.

Learned counsel for the petitioners fairly states that the questions of law raised in these writ petitions were also the subject matter of seven other writ petitions brought by the similarly situated workmen and their petitions were decided against them vide decision dated 23.01.2023. Learned counsel further states that said judgment squarely covers these writ petitions as well.

In view of the above statement of learned counsel, all the writ petitions are dismissed in terms of decision dated 23.01.2023 passed in CWP-17541-2021, titled as “Rajender Vs. Presiding Officer Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Panipat and others”.
