DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

Through the present petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the petitioner seeks quashing of order dated 10.10.2022 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Amritsar through which on account of the non-appearance in his trial his bail has been cancelled.

The present petition came up for preliminary hearing on February 16, 2023 on which date this Court had passed the following order:-

“Learned counsel for the petitioner inter-alia contends that after the petitioner had been granted bail on 27.08.2019 he has been regularly appearing in his trial unless specifically exempted; on 10.10.2022 he could not appear before the trial court as his counsel had conveyed to him that the next date of hearing was 10.01.2023 and that the petitioner would now appear on all dates in his trial in the future unless specifically exempted.

Notice of motion.

Mr. Arun Luthra, DAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State.

Adjourned to 18.04.2023.

In the meanwhile, subject to payment of `5,000/- as costs, to be deposited with Veeranwali Foundation Nanhi Jaan, ICICI Bank, Sector-34, Chandigarh, A/c – 134101000271, IFSC Code – ICIC0001341 and appearance of the petitioner before the trial court within one week from today, he shall be admitted to interim bail to the satisfaction of the trial court.”

In pursuance to the afore-quoted order, the petitioner has deposited the awarded costs as also has put in appearance before the trial court and that on such appearance he has been granted interim bail to the satisfaction of the trial court.

In the light of the reasons recorded in the afore-quoted order and because the petitioner has shown his bona fides by putting in appearance before the trial court, it is directed that the trial court may consider to make the interim bail granted the petitioner absolute, in accordance with law.

Disposed of.
