Nashattar Kaur

... Applicant

Versus

Jyoti

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK GUPTA

Present:- Mr. Sanjeev Kumar Bawa, Advocate for the applicant.

DEEPAK GUPTA, J.(Oral)

This is an application filed under Section 378(4) Cr.P.C. for grant of leave to appeal against the order dated 29.08.2014, whereby respondent in a complaint bearing RBT No.139/1/13 of 12.11.2009, titled as “Nashattar Kaur vs Kamaljit Singh and others” has been acquitted by the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Phillaur.

Having considered submissions of learned counsel for the applicant, I find no merit in the present application for grant of leave to appeal. The first reason for recording acquittal is delay of 11 days in making the complaint. Secondly, the applicant alleged that damage to her household article were caused but neither any photograph nor any damage report was filed.

The Trial Court has also observed that grand daughter of the complainant has married with one of the accused, which was the cause of grudge.

Learned counsel for the applicant could not point out any illegality or perversity in the findings of the acquittal. As such, finding no merit in the application for grant of leave to appeal, the same is dismissed.
