GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

The petitioners, both of whom are in a 'live-in' relationship, have approached this Court seeking issuance of a direction to official respondents to protect their lives and liberty as they apprehend threat to the same at the hands of respondent Nos.4 to 20, who do not approve of their 'live-in' relationship.

Pursuant to issuance of notice of motion, State has filed its reply which is accompanied by statements of petitioners i.e. Annexures R-1 and R-

2, wherein they have categorically stated that they do not nurse any kind of threat to their lives and liberty and do not require any police protection. Statements of several of the private respondents have also been recorded who also assured that they shall not cause any harm to the petitioners.

In view of the aforestated position, the present petition is disposed of having been rendered infructuous.

However, if at a later stage, the petitioners apprehend any kind of threat to their lives and liberty, it shall be open to them to approach this Court again.
