Notice of motion.

On the asking of Court, Mr. Rajiv Verma, DAG, Punjab accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State and seeks time to get instructions.

Adjourned to 05.07.2023.

Looking into the totality of facts and circumstances and also the fact that there is an inordinate delay of 22 days in registration of FIR, which has not been explained even in the body of the FIR and the fact that no specific injuries have been attributed to the petitioners, the petitioners are directed to be released on interim bail subject to the satisfaction of Arresting Officer/Investigating Officer, on their joining investigation as and when called for and cooperate in investigation and also shall abide by the conditions as envisaged under Section 438 (2) Cr.P.C. ”

2. Learned counsel submits that in pursuance of the above order, the petitioners have not only joined investigation, but also fully cooperated with the investigating agency. He further submits that in case the investigating agency requires the petitioners to appear, they shall make themselves available without demur.
3. Learned State counsel on instructions from ASI Jagtar Singh affirms the factum of joining the investigation by the petitioners and cooperating with the investigating agency. He also submits that at this stage, the petitioners are not required for further custodial interrogation.
4. In view of the above and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, anticipatory bail petition filed by the petitioners is allowed and the order dated 28.02.2023 granting interim bail to them, is hereby made absolute, subject to compliance of conditions as specified under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
5. However, it is made clear that if the petitioners fail to join and cooperate with the investigating agency as and when required, the State would be at liberty to move an application for cancellation of the present anticipatory bail granted to them.
