CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN PALLI

Present: Mr. Gurinder Jit Singh, Advocate, for the appellants.

Mr. A.K. Garg, Advocate, for
Mr. Amarjit Markan, Advocate, for the respondents.

ARUN PALLI, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the parties submit that despite repeated communications, neither the parties themselves nor anyone on their behalf has contacted their respective offices to pursue the matter. The appeal is pending post admission since 13.06.1991. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that even partition proceedings were pending between the parties but for lack of instructions, he cannot clarify as to its fate/status. It is urged that the matter appears to have rendered infructuous with the efflux of time and be disposed of as such. However, both the learned counsel submits that liberty be granted to the parties to move appropriate application(s), in case any dispute, cause of action or interest still survives, for restoration of the appeal and its decision on merit.

Accordingly, the appeal is disposed of as infructuous with the liberty prayed for.
