VIKRAM AGGARWAL, J. (ORAL)

1. On the last date of hearing, notice had been ordered to be issued to the appellant.
2. As per the report of the Registry, notice issued to the appellant has been received back with report that the company has been shut down many years ago. With regard to respondent No.3 it has been reported that the registered AD has been received back with the report that respondent No.3 has left given address. Even otherwise respondent No.3 is a proforma respondent.
3. Since no one has appeared on behalf of the appellant and summons have also been received back with the report that the company has been shut down many years ago, no useful purpose would be served by continuing the present appeal.
4. The appeal is therefore dismissed in default. However, the appellant would be at liberty to get the same revived at a later stage.
