1.

The learned counsel representing the respondents submits that the appeal has been rendered infructuous as the defendants have died and now the property has come to the share of the natural heirs.
2.

The learned counsel representing the appellant submits that despite his best efforts he failed to get the information from the appellant. He submits that the appellant has also not responded to the notice sent by the court.
3.

Dismissed for non-prosecution.
4.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
