...Respondents

Mr. M.K.Arya and Ms. Preeti Arya, Advocates, for respondents No.4 & 5.

Today, reply on behalf of the State has been filed, which is accompanied by the separate statements of both the petitioners as recorded by SI Kulwant Singh. In their statements, both the petitioners have categorically stated that they do not apprehend any danger as of now and do not need any protection.

In view of the aforesaid position, the instant petition is disposed of having been rendered infructuous.

However, in case at a later stage, the petitioners apprehend any kind of threat to their lives and liberty, it is always open to them to approach this Court again.
