..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ALOK JAIN

Present :- Mr.Dhruv Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner

ALOK JAIN, J. :

The present petition raises challenge to the order dated 19.01.2023 passed by the learned Additional Principal Judge(Family Court), District Ambala, whereby the learned Court below has granted interim maintenance to the respondents to the tune of Rs.20,000/- per month i.e. Rs.15,000/- per month to the wife and Rs.5000/- per month to the minor child.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has vehemently argued the matter and submitted that the respondent-wife is residing in the matrimonial house and in view of the fact that she is also working in a private school as a teacher and earning to the tune of Rs.3500/- / Rs.10,000/- per month (based upon two affidavits filed in separate proceedings in the year 2021 and 2022), the amount is on the higher side. He further submits that in the absence of any cogent evidence, the learned Court below has wrongly taken the income of the petitioner on a higher side and hence submits that the interim maintenance is not in consonance to the earning of the petitioner.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner at length.

A perusal of the record shows that the impugned order is only an interim arrangement and all the issues raised by the petitioner are subject to evidence and adjudication by the Court below.

No ground to interfere in the impugned order passed by the Court below, has been made out.

Accordingly, the present petition stands dismissed.
