GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

Despite an order passed by this Court for appointment of Warrant Officer at the expense of the petitioner, the petitioner has not done the needful though the matter has been adjourned twice for the said purpose.

Today, learned counsel representing UT Chandigarh has informed that some inquiries were conducted and the alleged detainee was not found at the residence of respondents No.4 to 6 i.e. at the address as has been provided in the Memo of Parties. He has further informed that however the mother of the detainee was found to be residing in a Jhuggi (hut) and was contacted and who informed that her daughter after solemnizing marriage visited her and is presently visiting her Aunt and that she is not illegally detained.

In view of the aforestated position, this Court does not find any ground for issuance of any direction. The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
