CRWP-2304-2023

1. The petitioners have filed the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India with a prayer to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners as they apprehend imminent threat at the hands of respondents
No. 4 and 5.

2. Pursuant to notice, a short reply by way of an affidavit of the Senior Superintendent of Police, Sangrur, District Sangrur had been filed before this Court. Learned State counsel submits that Achhara Singh respondent No. 4 was ordered to be arrested on 25.03.2023 in case FIR No. 64 dated 22.03.2023 under Sections 307, 459, 323, 325, 506, 34 and 472 IPC, Sections 3/4 of the the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 and Sections 25/27/54/49 of the Arms Act, Police Station City 1, Sangrur and one pistol .32 bore alongwith two magazines and 10 live cartridges and car bearing No. PB-13-A-0046 make Innova have been recovered from him. He has also been arrested in FIR No. 36 dated 21.03.2023 under Section 452, 323 and 506 IPC and Sections 25, 27, 54 and 59 of the Arms Act, Police Station Sadar Sangrur. After arresting the respondent No. 4, the final reports under Section 173 Cr.P.C. have been presented against respondent No. 4 in the above mentioned FIRs No. 64 and 36. Learned State counsel further submits that the police has already investigated the matter against respondent No. 5, but no incriminating evidence has surfaced against her and, consequently, she has not been arrested so far. Learned State counsel has further assured the Court that it is bounden duty of the State to protect the life and liberty of both the petitioners and in case any representation is received from the petitioners with regard to the protection of life and liberty of both the petitioners, appropriate and necessary action shall be taken in the said case, in accordance with law.

3. In view of the statement made by the learned State counsel, nothing survives in the present petition and the same is, accordingly, ordered to be disposed off.
