2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has been in custody for more than five months. The trial is not likely to be concluded at an early date as only charges have been framed as yet. No other criminal case is pending/decided against the petitioner and thus, he may be granted regular bail.

4. Learned State counsel concedes that only charges have been framed as yet.
5. Thus, it is evident that the trial is not likely to be concluded at an early date. Keeping in view the custody period of the petitioner as well as the fact that there is no other criminal case pending against him, I deem it appropriate to grant him regular bail.
6. Accordingly, the petition is allowed. The petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned.
7. Nothing stated hereinabove shall be construed as an opinion on the merits of the case.
