Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the first grievance of the petitioner is that her services are not being regularized under the regularization policy issued by the Government of Haryana.

On being asked as to under which regularization policy, the petitioner is claiming the said benefit of regularization of her services, learned counsel for the petitioner very fairly submits that the regularization policy, which was issued by the Government of Haryana in the year 2014 under which the petitioner is claiming the benefit of regularization of her services, has already been set aside by this Court while passing order in CWP No.17206 of 2014 titled as Yogesh Tyagi and another vs. State of Haryana and others, decided on 31.05.2018 but the matter is pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, hence, the present petition qua disposed of having been not pressed any further at this stage with liberty to the petitioner either to revive the present petition or file a fresh petition in case any right accrues in favour of the petitioner after the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.

Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that even the salary of the petitioner has been reduced.

No record of the same has been produced before this Court.

Be that as it may, in case salary of the petitioner has been reduced, the petitioner will be at liberty to approach the respondents by way of filing an appropriate representation and in case any such representation is filed by the petitioner, the respondents are directed to decide the same by passing an appropriate speaking order within a period of 08 weeks from the date of receipt of said representation and in case after the decision, the petitioner is found entitled for any relief, the same will be extended to her within a further period of two weeks.

Present petition stands disposed of in above terms.
