

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

201

IOIN-RSA-1949-1995 in
RSA-1949-1995 (O&M)

Date of Decision: 09.11.2023

Sheotaj

Versus

.... Appellant

Oriental Bank of Commerce and another

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present: - None.

NIDHI GUPTA, J. (ORAL)

There is no representation on behalf of either of the parties.

Perusal of the file shows that vide order dated 14.01.2020, a co-ordinate Bench of this Court had observed that as the matter is 25 years old, necessitates speedy disposal and, therefore, the same was ordered to be shown at the end of urgent list and no adjournment slip would be entertained. Similar observations have also been made by this Court in the order dated 07.02.2020.

Despite the aforesaid observations of this Court, none has put in appearance on behalf of the either of the parties.

Therefore, it can safely be presumed that the appellant or his counsel is not interested in pursuing the instant second appeal.

Thus, the instant regular second appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution.

Pending application(s), if any, as well as the IOIN also stand disposed of, accordingly.

09.11.2023
rishu

(NIDHI GUPTA)
JUDGE

Whether speaking/reasoned

Yes/No

Whether Reportable

Yes/No