Tribhuvan Dahiya, J (Oral)

This judgment shall decide the aforementioned petitions as they involve similar facts and questions of law.

2. For facts, file of Civil Writ Petition No.5847 of 2023 is being referred to.

3. The petition has been filed seeking a writ of certiorari quashing the order dated 19.09.2022 (Annexure P-10), whereby the respondents have withdrawn their earlier order dated 06.09.2021 (Annexure P-1) vide which the certificate of Central Teacher Eligibility Test (CTET) was considered equivalent to State Teacher Eligibility Test (STET)/Haryana Teacher Eligibility Test (HTET) for all intents and purposes; and a writ of mandamus directing the respondents to consider the petitioners eligible for the post of TGT as per Advertisement No.2/2023 (Annexure P-14) by considering CTET equivalent to STET/HTET for all intents and purposes.

4. Learned State counsel has placed reliance upon and it is not disputed at Bar that the issue raised in the instant petition already stands decided against the petitioner(s) by a co-ordinate Bench vide judgment dated 21.03.2023 passed in Civil Writ Petition No.5864 of 2023, titled Annu Vs. State of Haryana and others. The judgment holds that cut-off date for submission of application forms for the posts in question cannot be extended as it would result in disruption of entire educational schedule. The only exception can be when the cut-off date has been fixed arbitrarily or there is any technical defect in the process of submission of application forms. None of these situations arise in the instant petition, and the cut-off date, 20.03.2023, for submission of application forms in response to the advertisement has already passed.

5. Therefore, these petitions stand disposed of being not maintainable in view of law laid down in Anu case (supra), leaving the issue of validity of the impugned notification dated 19.09.2022 open, to be adjudicated in appropriate proceedings.
