(2) In the present case, petitioners gave beatings and inflicted injuries upon the victim/complainant party resulting into registration of the present FIR.

between them, report dated 29.04.2023 has been received in the connected matter from the concerned court, stating that the compromise in the present case is valid, genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or under influence. There is no other accused except the present petitioners and the complainant namely, Sarabjit Singh @ Kali and one Sukhwinder Kaur being injured. No accused has been declared as proclaimed offender. The stage of trial was fixed for evidence of prosecution.

(4) Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that once, the compromise has been arrived at between the parties without any pressure and respondents No.2 & 3 have no objection as regards quashing of FIR as well as other subsequent proceedings arising out of the same against the petitioners, the dispute being purely personal in nature, there does not appear to be any impediment as regards quashing of present FIR. He further submits that in order to maintain peace and harmony between the parties, particularly under the circumstances wherein the alleged offences have no societal interest involved, it would be appropriate to render complete quietus to the aforementioned dispute by quashing the FIR on the basis of compromise entered into between the parties.

(5) On the other hand learned State counsel submits that injuries have been inflicted upon the person of victim.

(6) Having heard learned counsel for the parties, they having settled their dispute so as to live peacefully in future, no useful purpose would be served by proceeding further with the criminal proceedings. In the light of above developments, no cause remains for the trial Court to invest further time and effort in adjudicating this FIR. The compromise in question is found to be fully in consonance with the direction issued by the Court in Kulwinder Singh
