

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

(266)

CRM-M-15210-2023
Date of Decision: 17.05.2023

Sukhwant Kaur and ors.

...Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and another

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARKESH MANUJA

Present: Mr. Nitin Meel, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. Amit Shukla, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Harsh, Advocate, for respondent No.2.

HARKESH MANUJA, J.(ORAL)

By way of present petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., petitioners pray for quashing of FIR No.52 dated 21.05.2021, registered under Sections 419, 420, 465, 467, 468, 471, 120-B IPC at Police Station Ghall Khurd, District Ferozepur (Annexure P-1) along with all consequential proceedings arising out of the same on the basis of compromise (Annexure P-2).

2. In the present case, after the death of their son, petitioners gave beatings to their daughter-in-law and turned her out and grand child from their matrimonial house and refused to give her share IN the property, resulting into registration of the present FIR.

3. In pursuance to an order dated 27.03.2023 passed by this Court, whereby the parties were directed to appear before the trial Court for getting their statements recorded as regards, the veracity of compromise arrived at between them, report dated 26.04.2023 has been received from the concerned court, stating that the compromise in the present case is valid, genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or under influence. There is no other accused except the present petitioners and the sole complainant namely, Daljit Kaur. No accused has been declared as proclaimed offender. The stage of trial was fixed for evidence of prosecution.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that once, the compromise has been arrived at between the parties without any pressure and respondent No.2 has no objection as regards quashing of FIR as well as other subsequent proceedings arising out of the same against the petitioners, the dispute being purely personal in nature, there does not appear to be any impediment as regards quashing of present FIR. He further submits that in order to maintain peace and harmony between the parties, particularly under the circumstances wherein the alleged offences have no societal interest involved, it would be appropriate to render complete quietus to the aforementioned dispute by quashing the FIR on the basis of compromise entered into between the parties.

5. On the other hand learned State counsel submits that petitioners gave beatings to their daughter-in-law and minor daughter and turned them out from their matrimonial house and refused to give their share in the property.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties, they having settled their dispute so as to live peacefully in future, no useful purpose would be served by proceeding further with the criminal proceedings. In the light of above developments, no cause remains for the trial Court to invest further time and effort in adjudicating this FIR. The compromise in question is found to be fully in consonance with the direction issued by the Court in Kulwinder Singh

& Ors. Vs. State of Punjab 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr., 2012(4) RCR (Crl.) 543.

7. Thus in view of the aforesaid report, accompanied by statements of both the parties as well as keeping in mind the law laid down in the aforementioned judgment, the instant petition is allowed and FIR No.52 dated 21.05.2021, registered under Sections 419, 420, 465, 467, 468, 471, 120-B IPC at Police Station Ghall Khurd, District Ferozepur (Annexure P-1) as well as all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed.

8. The aforesaid order shall however, be subject to payment costs of Rs.10,000/- to be deposited by the petitioners with the Punjab and Haryana High Court Association Lawyer's Family Welfare Fund having Account No.41564846387 with State Bank of India, High Court Branch, Chandigarh, within a period of two weeks from today.
