

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

206

Criminal Misc. No. M-15634 of 2023

Date of decision :-07.10.2023

Jagdeep Sharma and others

.....Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

.....Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present:- Mr. Balbir Kumar Saini, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Kunwarbir Singh, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Kulbir Singh Saini, Advocate
For respondents No.2 and 3.

NIDHI GUPTA J. (Oral)

The petitioners have filed the present petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., for quashing FIR No.0123 dated 24.12.2022, under Sections 406 and 498-A IPC, registered at Police Station Smalsar, District Moga (Annexure P-1) and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise deed dated 13.2.2023 (Annexure P-2).

Pursuant to the order dated 28.3.2023 passed by a co-ordinate Bench of this Count, the parties appeared before the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Baghapurana, to get their statements recorded. Learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Baghapurana, has submitted his/her report along with copies of the statements of the parties vide letter dated 17.6.2023 duly forwarded by the learned District and Sessions Judge, Moga.

A perusal of the above said report would show that the petitioners and respondents No.2 and 3 have appeared and suffered statements with respect to the compromise, which have been found to be voluntary, genuine, and out of free will.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has further submitted that the petitioners were not declared proclaimed offender in the present case.

Learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed on the basis of compromise qua the petitioners.

Learned counsel for respondents No.2 and 3 has reiterated that the matter has been settled and the said compromise is in the interest of all the persons and would help in bringing out peace and amity between the two parties.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file.

After perusing the report submitted by the concerned Magistrate, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioners and the complainant. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR

(Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cl.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the proceedings where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice.

This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone. Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz, (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, this petition is allowed and FIR No.0123 dated 24.12.2022, under Sections 406 and 498-A IPC, registered at Police Station Smalsar, District Moga along with all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise, are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioners.
