Application is allowed, as prayed for.

CR No. 2352 of 2023

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the present petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further with direction to the trial court to frame the issue of limitation as well as jurisdiction and decide the same as a preliminary issue.

It may be noticed that at this stage, this Court is not required to pass such order. In case, after the framing of the issues, any application is moved by the petitioners to decide any issue qua the jurisdiction or the limitation as a preliminary issue, the court will render due consideration to the said application and will pass appropriate order on the same.

Keeping in view the above, the present civil revision petition is disposed of having been not pressed any further.
