IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARHCRM-M-17663-2022 (O & M)*Date of decision: 01.05.2023

Rabinder Singh

.... Petitioner

V/s

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASJIT SINGH BEDI

Present: Mr. Jashandeep Singh Sandhu, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms. Ramta K Chaudhary, DAG, Punjab.

JASJIT SINGH BEDI, J. (Oral)

The prayer in the present petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C. is for the grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.06 dated 04.02.2021 registered under Section 22 of the NDPS Act, 1985 and Section 29 of the NDPS Act (added later on) registered at Police Station GRP Bathinda, District Bathinda Punjab.

2. The brief facts of the case are that while the police party was on the platform of Railway Station Maur, regarding checking of the trains, then in the last coach of one of the trains, one person was seen holding a grey and green coloured bag in his hand. He was signaled to stop on suspicion but ran away. He was chased and apprehended. Meanwhile, the bag which he was holding in his hand fell down and the boxes of intoxicating tablets including Tramadol came out and were scattered. On enquiry, he disclosed his named as Rabinder Singh (petitioner). The recovery of 34 boxes of RL-DOL 100 SR in which Tramadol Hydrochloride salt was present came to be effected. All the boxes had B. No.201-T935 and the manufacturing date of these was Dec. 2020 and Exp;. Date Nov. 2022 and the same were of ORISON Internation Khari Mouza Ogli Kala Amb 173030 (H). Each box contained 50x10=500 tablets totalling 34 boxes amounting to 17000 tablets.

Based on the aforementioned allegations, the instant FIR came to be registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. As no recovery was effected from his person, he could not be said to be in conscious possession of the contraband. No independent witness was joined by the police party despite opportunity. There was non-compliance of Section 50 and other mandatory provisions of the NDPS Act as well. As the petitioner was a first-time offender, in custody since 04.02.201 and only 01 out of the 26 prosecution witnesses had been examined so far, the petitioner was entitled to the concession of bail in view of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in 'Nitish Adhikary @ Bapan versus The State of West Bengal, SLP (Crl.) Nos. 5769/2022 arising out of judgment and order dated 04.05.2022 in CRM (NDPS) No.442-2022 decided on 01.08.2022 and followed by this Court in the case of 'Balraj Singh versus State of Punjab (CRM-M-57386-2022 decided on 14.12.2022)'.

4. The learned counsel for the State, on the other hand, contends that commercial quantity of contraband has been recovered from the petitioner. Therefore, the bar contained under Section 37 of the NDPS Act did not entitle him to the grant of bail. He, however, does not dispute the fact that the petitioner a first-time offender, is in custody since 04.02.2021 and only 01 of the 26 prosecution witnesses had been examined so far.

6. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Nitish Adhikary @ Bapan Vs. The State of West Bengal SLP (Crl.) Nos.5769/2022 Decided on 01.08.2022 held as under:-

“As per the office report dated 29.07.2022, copy of the show cause notice along with Special Leave Petition was supplied to the Standing Counsel for the State of West Bengal and separate notice has been served on the State also. However, no one has entered appearance on their behalf.

The petitioner seeks enlargement on bail in F.I.R. No. 612 of 2020 dated 17.10.2020 filed under Section 21(c) and 37 of the NDPS 2 Act, registered at Police Station Bongaon, West Bengal.

During the course of the hearing, we are informed that the petitioner has undergone custody for a period of 01 year and 07 months as on 09.06.2022. The trial is at a preliminary stage, as only one witness has been examined. The petitioner does not have any criminal antecedents.

Taking into consideration the period of sentence undergone by the petitioner and all the attending circumstances but without expressing any views in the merits of the case, we are inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

The petitioner is accordingly, directed to be released on bail subject to him furnishing bail bonds to the satisfaction of the Trial Court.

The Special Leave Petition is disposed of on the aforestated terms.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.”

This Court in the case of Balraj Singh Versus State of Punjab, CRM-M-57386-2022, decided on 14.12.2022 has followed the dictum laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and granted bail to the petitioner therein after he had undergone total custody of 01 year and 06 months.

7. Admittedly, the petitioner is in custody since 04.02.2021 and only 01 out of 26 prosecution witnesses have been examined so far. The petitioner is a first-time offender with no other case registered against him. In this view of the matter, the rigors of Section 37 of the NDPS Act can be relaxed to an extent in view of the salutary provisions under Article 21 of the Constitution of India which provides for the right to a speedy Trial and the case of the petitioner can be considered for the grant of concession of bail.

8. Thus, without commenting upon the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner-Rabinder Singh is ordered to be released on bail to the satisfaction of the Trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned.

9. The petitioner shall appear on the first Monday of every month before the police station concerned till the conclusion of the trial and furnish an affidavit each time that he is not involved in any crime other than the present one

10. In addition, the petitioner (or someone on his behalf) shall prepare an FDR in the sum of Rs.1,00,000/- and deposit the same with the Trial Court. The same would be liable to be forfeited as per law in case of the absence of the petitioner from trial without sufficient cause.
