CM-2509-C-2022

Present application has been filed for fixing the RSA-1825-1998 to an early actual date of hearing.

Notice of the application to the counsel opposite.

Mr. Gurpreet Singh, learned Additional Advocate General, Punjab, who is present in court, accepts notice on behalf of appellants-State and raises no objection for the grant of prayer as made in the present application.

Keeping in view the above, application is allowed and the RSA-1825-1998 is taken up for hearing today.

RSA-1825-1998

Learned counsel for the appellants submits that the present appeal relates to the year 1998 and as per the judgment and decree of the lower appellate court, the respondent-plaintiff was directed to be reinstated in service, which was already done in the absence of any interim order in the present appeal.

At this stage, learned counsel for the respondent submits that the respondent-plaintiff was reinstated in service and he has served and has also retired.

Learned counsel for the appellants submits that keeping in view the fact that judgment and decree impugned has already been implemented, the question of law be kept open and the present appeal may kindly be disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.

Ordered accordingly.
