On the last date of hearing, it was stated by learned counsel for the appellant that as the case is very old, he is not in contact with the appellant. Hence, notice was ordered to be issued to the appellant. Nobody was also appearing for the respondents. As there is no Insurance Company in this case, Registry was directed to issue fresh notice to private respondents as well.

As per report of the Registry, notice issued to appellant received back unserved with the report that he has left the said address. No other address is available on the file of this case. Even learned counsel for the appellant has not provided any other address of the appellant. Notice issued to respondent No.1 received back unserved with the report that he is untraced. Service of respondent No.2 has been effected. However, none appeared. Notice issued to respondent Nos.3, 5 and 6 also received back unserved with the report that they also left the said address. Notice issued to respondent No.4 received back with the report that his wife told that he was away on duty.

In view of these facts, the present appeal is ordered to be consigned to the record with liberty to the parties to get it revived, if so desire.
