VINOD S. BHARDWAJ, J. (ORAL)

The present petition has been filed for seeking issuance of directions to the respondents to release the payment of the pending bills and security deposit.

It has been informed by the learned counsel for the respondents- the Haryana School Education Board that the due payment had already been released.

The aforesaid statement is not disputed by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner. She, however, submits that the payment was released after much delay and the petitioner is entitled to payment of interest thereupon.

Be that as it may, since the substantial grievance of the petitioner stands redressed and the dispute only remains with respect to payment of interest on the overdue amount, the parties may, if so advised, take recourse to the appropriate remedies to approach the Civil Court for redressal of the said grievance.

Needless to mention that in the event of aforesaid remedy being availed by the petitioner, the period during which the present petition has remained pending before this Court, shall be taken into consideration while computing limitation.

Petition stands disposed of accordingly.
