ANOOP CHITKARA J. (ORAL)

Petitioner has come up before this Court for issuance of directions to official respondents to handover investigation of the case FIR No.0917 dated 21.04.2020, under Sections 120(B), 307, 323, 302 IPC , Section 3 of Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, registered at Police Station City Fatehabad, to any independent agency. Main grievance appears in this petition is not arraigning Dara Singh as an accused in the FIR.

State counsel based on paragraph 9 of the reply submits that the trial has commenced and during the pendency of the trial, the complainant-petitioner has moved an application under Section 319 Cr.P.C. to summon the said Dara Singh as as additional accused and avail his remedy as per law.

Since now the proceedings are continuing and trial is in progress, the present petition needs not be continue and is disposed of as such.

Qua prayer for protection, State counsel submits that it was already granted in case, the petitioner requires it further, he is at liberty to file application with concerned Superintendent of Police for grant of protection.

Given above, petitioner is permitted to file representation before concerned Superintendent of Police, who shall grant him protection in accordance with law.

The petition is party allowed to the extent as mentioned above. All pending application(s), if any, stand disposed of.
