Present petition has been filed with a prayer that election petition No.01-2022 instituted on 21.11.2022 be decided in a time bound manner as private respondents-defendants are intentionally delaying the proceedings.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner-plaintiff submits that when the petition was taken up for hearing, plaintiff did not address the arguments and the same was adjourned and it was only in December, 2022 notice was issued after initial arguments were addressed.

The zimni orders show that after the defendants appeared, they were extended time to file reply. Written statement has already been filed and the respondents-defendants have filed application under Order 7 Rule 11 of the CPC, which is pending consideration.

These facts clearly go to show that the petition is being dealt with in a manner required as per law hence, no direction is needed as this Court has no appreciation that the election petition will be decided as expeditiously as possible after adopting procedure as envisaged under law.

Present civil revision petition stands disposed of in above terms .
