versus

Jyoti

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE NAMIT KUMARPresent: Mr. Divyam Singh, Advocate for the appellant.Mr. Ishnoor Singh Bains, Advocate for the respondent.

NAMIT KUMAR, J. (ORAL)

The instant application has been filed by the applicant under Section 378(4) Cr.PC seeking leave to appeal against the order dated 25.03.2022 passed by the Ld. Trial Court whereby the Ld. Trial Court has acquitted the respondent from the charges framed under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.

Learned counsel for the parties have stated that the present application may be disposed of as the parties have amicably settled the dispute.

Vide order dated 12.01.2023, the matter was referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre at Karnal as the matter had already been compromised between the parties vide compromise deed dated 25.12.2022 (Annexure R-1).

In compliance thereof, report from the Mediation and Conciliation Centre at Karnal has been received through District and Sessions Judge, Karnal, in which, it has been mentioned that the matter has been amicably settled and mediation proceedings remained successful.

Having regard to the contentions of learned counsel for the parties and the fact that both the parties to the litigation have entered into compromise, the instant application is disposed of on the basis of compromise arrived at between the parties. Needless to say that parties shall remain bound by the said compromise deed dated 25.12.2022 (Annexure R-1).
