

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-22033 of 2023
Date of decision: 29th August, 2023

Jaspal Singh and another

Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and another

Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AVNEESH JHINGAN

Present: Mr. Ravi Chadha, Advocate for the petitioners.
Mr. Jashanpreet Singh, DAG, Punjab.
Mr. A. K. Yadav, Advocate for the complainant.

AVNEESH JHINGAN, J (Oral):

1. This is a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No. 19 dated 11.3.2023, under Sections 406 and 420 IPC and Section 13 of the Punjab Travel Professionals (Regulation) Act, 2014, registered at Police Station Hajipur, District Hoshiarpur and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise.
2. As per the allegations in the FIR, the petitioners in connivance with each other ostensibly received the amount on the pretext of sending the son of the complainant abroad. Neither the needful was done nor the amount was returned.
3. On 2.5.2023, the parties were directed to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial court for getting their statements recorded with regard to compromise.
4. The report dated 26.7.2023 is received stating that the compromise is genuine, voluntary, without any coercion or undue influence and that there are two accused (petitioners herein) and none of them has been declared as proclaimed offender.

5. Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, has held:-

“There is no statutory bar in Cr.P.C. which affects inherent power of this Court under Section 482. The power of quashing is not limited to matrimonial cases alone.”

6. The Supreme Court in Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Karmur and others v. State of Gujarat and another, 2017 AIR (SC) 4843 laid down the broad principles governing the exercise of powers for quashing of FIR. It was held that the power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is to be exercised by the High Court to secure the ends of justice, to prevent abuse of any process of law and in cases where in view of the compromise the possibility of conviction is remote and continuation of proceeding will cause oppression and prejudice.

8. The dispute has a pre-dominant tone and tenor of commercial transaction. The parties have settled the differences and decided not to litigate any further. No useful purpose would be served by continuing with the trial. To meet the ends of justice, the FIR mentioned above and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

9. The petition is allowed.
