State of Punjab and anr.

.....Respondents

Present:- Mr. Veneet Sharma, Advocate for the petitioners.
Mr. Kunwarbir Singh, AAG, Punjab.
Mr. Vidul Kapoor, Advocate for respondent No.2.

Prayer in the present petition is for quashing of FIR .05.2021 (Annexure P-1) under Sections 406 and 498-A Police Station Women, Amritsar City, District Amritsar sequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of d 11.01.2023 (Annexure P-2) arrived at between the

Although, vide order dated 05.05.2023 this Court had directed the parties to appear before the concerned Illaqa/Duty Magistrate for getting their statements recorded, but the parties could not appear before the Illaqa/Duty Magistrate. Thereafter, vide order dated 07.08.2023, learned counsel for the parties sought one more opportunity for recording the statements and this Court again directed the parties to appear before the trial Court/Illaqa Magistrate for getting their statements recorded in terms of certain parameters given in the aforesaid order dated 07.08.2023 with regard to the compromise dated 11.01.2023 (Annexure P-2).

In terms of the order dated 07.08.2023 passed by this Court, parties have appeared before the Court of learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Amritsar and as per her report dated 14.09.2023, duly forwarded by the learned District & Sessions Judge, Amritsar to this Court on 15.09.2023, both the parties have got recorded their respective statements in Court.

A perusal of the above said report would show that the petitioners and respondent No.2 have appeared and suffered statements with respect to the compromise, which have been found to be voluntary, genuine, and out of free will.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has further submitted that the petitioners were not declared proclaimed offender in the present case.

Learned State Counsel has filed short reply by way of affidavit of Sh. Rakesh Kumar, PPS, Assistant Commissioner of Police (Crime against Women and Children), Amritsar City in Court. The same is taken on record. Copy thereof supplied to learned counsel opposite.

Learned State counsel states that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed on the basis of said compromise qua the petitioners.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 has again reiterated that the matter has been settled and the said compromise is in the interest of all the persons and would help in bringing out peace and amity between the two parties.

This Court has heard learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file.

After perusing the report submitted by the learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Amritsar, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioners and respondent No.2. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the proceedings where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, the present petition is allowed and FIR No.0046 dated 22.05.2021 (Annexure P-1) under Sections 406 and 498-A IPC registered at Police Station Women, Amritsar City, District Amritsar along with all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioners on the basis of compromise arrived at between the parties, as recorded in the report of learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Amritsar.
