SURESHWAR THAKUR, J. (ORAL)

1. The present petitioner was assigned parole, lasting upto a duration of 70 days, thus by the Competent Authority. However, the said period is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner to expire tomorrow.
2. The learned counsel for the petitioner argues, that this Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction, may proceed to enlarge the said period of parole, and, the reason which he submits to constrain this Court to do so, becomes hinged, upon, the factum, that the infant child of the petitioner, is undergoing treatment at Pragati Hospital, Rohtak, and, his medical condition is deteriorating, as such, the attendance, upon him by his father, the petitioner herein thus is most imperative.
3. He further argues that this Court, in the exercise of its jurisdiction, thus can yet enlarge the period of parole which would terminate tomorrow, and, the said argument is rested upon the above reason.

4. However, for the reasons to be assigned hereinafter the above made submission does not appeal to the conscience of this Court, as the jurisdiction at this stage, in respect of the above claim raised before this Court, is not to be exercised by this Court, especially when the jurisdiction to enlarge the period of parole, but on the above premise is rested in the Competent Statutory Authority.

4. Therefore, the above made prayer is rejected. Nonetheless in the larger interest of justice keeping in view the medical condition of the infant son of the petitioner, the petitioner may not re-step into the prison concerned, but only for a period of 5 days from today, but yet subject to his moving tomorrow before the Competent Authority, an application for enlarging the period of parole. On such an application being filed, a lawful decision be made thereon, but within 4 days of its preferment.

5. An authentic copy of the same be supplied to the learned counsel for the petitioner under the signatures of the Bench Secretary of this Court.
