N.S.SHEKHAWAT, J. (Oral)

1 The petitioners have filed the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India with a prayer to protect the lives and liberty of the petitioners as they apprehend threat at the instance of respondents No. 4 and 5.

2 Learned State counsel submits that after the issuance of notice by this Court, the inquiry has been held in the matter and both the sides were joined in the inquiry. She further contends that respondents No. 4 and 5 have made a statement that they have no objection to the marriage of both the petitioners and will not threaten them. Learned State counsel has assured the Court that in case any representation is received from the petitioners with regard to the threat to their lives and liberty, the same shall be looked into and appropriate action shall be taken in accordance with law.

3 In view of statement made by the learned State counsel, nothing survives in the present petition and the same is disposed off as such.
