Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioners submit that even from the impugned order dated 18.01.2023 (Annexure P/8), it is clear that there is some confusion with regard to the demarcation of the land in question for which, the Executing Court directed the parties to get the land in question demarcated so as to remove the confusion hence, the present revision petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further with liberty to the petitioners to get the land in question demarcated and in case after the said demarcation report, any right exists with the petitioners keeping in view the judgment and decree in their favour, they be given appropriate right to get the same enforced.

Ordered accordingly.
