GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J.(Oral)

1. Learned proxy counsel for the petitioners has requested for an adjournment on the ground that arguing counsel is indisposed. However, this Court finds that the matter has been adjourned repeatedly. On the last date of hearing the following order was passed:

“A perusal of the earlier orders would reflect that counsel appearing for the petitioner has been seeking time to address arguments.

There is no representation for the petitioners.

Last opportunity is allowed to the counsel for the petitioners to address arguments, failing which the writ petition will be dismissed for non-prosecution.

Adjourned to 29.11.2022.”

2. Having regard to the aforesaid order and the fact that even today, a request for adjournment has been made, the instant petition is hereby dismissed for non-prosecution.
