

IOIN-FAO No.676 of 2004
CM No.2385-CII of 2019
CM No.4318-CII of 2019 in
FAO NO.676 of 2004

EMPLOYEES' STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION VS. M/S ESCORTS EMPLOYEES ANCILIARIES LTD.

Present: Mr. Arun Sharma, Advocate, appearing for Mr. Gaurav Gupta, Advocate, for the applicant-appellant.

* * * *

Fresh Power of Attorney has been filed on behalf of the appellant in the Court today and the same is taken on the record.

CM No.2385-CII of 2019
CM No.4318-CII of 2019

A perusal of the file reveals that as per the order dated 21.11.2019, Ms. Benti Kaur Advocate, had appeared for Mr. Aditya P.
Arora, Advocate, on behalf of the respondent and had submitted the Power of Attorney in the Court, on that day.

In view of this fact, it becomes explicit that CM No.4318-CII of 2019, preferred by the applicant-appellant for serving notice to the respondent through substituted mode and CM No.2385-CII of 2019 as preferred for seeking the issuance of the summons at the residential address of the Director of the respondent-Company, have been rendered infructuous.
Resultantly, the same stand disposed of accordingly.

IOIN-FAO No.676 of 2004

IOIN also stands disposed of.
