Learned State counsel, on instructions, submits that though an FIR bearing No.205 dated 16.05.2023, under Section 366 of Indian Penal Code at Police Station Kaithal was indeed registered against petitioner No.2, however, the private respondents had during the pendency of the instant petition, made statements to the police that they had accepted the marriage of the petitioners. Learned State counsel submits that in view of the statements given by the private respondents, threat perception as alleged is no longer in existence.

In the wake of the instructions received by the learned State counsel, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner does not press the instant petition.
