JASGURPREET SINGH PURI, J. (Oral)

At the outset, the learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the grievance of the petitioner has already been redressed and he has been paid the amount alongwith interest and therefore nothing survives in the present petition. He further submitted that in case any amount is still subsisting, then he may be permitted to approach the authorities with regard to the same.

Dismissed as withdrawn.

In case any amount is still subsisting qua the petitioner, then he is always at liberty to approach the authorities.
