

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH258*CRM-M No.28082 of 2023*Date of Decision : 04.10.2023

Mohinder Singh and Others

....Petitioners

VERSUS

State of Punjab and Another

....Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE ALKA SARIN

Present : Mr. Ajay Pal Singh Rehan, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Harjinder Singh Sidhu, AAG Punjab for respondent No.1.

Mr. Sandeep Godara, Advocate for respondent No.2.

ALKA SARIN, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 for quashing of FIR No.85 dated 26.05.2012 registered under Sections 406, 498-A of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, at Police Station Shahkot, District Jalandhar, and all subsequent proceedings arising out of the said FIR, on the basis of compromise dated 17.02.2023 (Annexure P-2).

2. On 01.06.2023 the following order was passed :

“The petitioners have filed the present petition seeking quashing of FIR No.85 dated 26.05.2012 under Sections 406, 498-A of IPC, registered at Police Station Shahkot, District Jalandhar and all other proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of the compromise dated 17.02.2023 (Annexure P-2).

Notice of motion.

On asking of the Court, Mr. Arun Gupta, AAG, Punjab accepts notice on behalf of respondent No.1/State and Mr. Sandeep Godara, Advocate, accepts notice on behalf of respondent No.2 and filed his memorandum of appearance, which is taken on record.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 is directed to file his Vakalatnama within two days from today.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 has not denied the factum of compromise effected between the parties.

Adjourned to 04.10.2023.

In the meanwhile, both the parties are directed to appear before the concerned Illaga/Duty Magistrate on 02.08.2023 or any other date, as the Court below may decide or fix, for recording their statements, who shall record their respective statements with regard to the genuineness/correctness of the compromise and that the compromise is not the result of any fraud or misrepresentation and is the result of free will of the parties. It would also be verified that besides the accused (petitioners) mentioned in the petition, there is no other accused in the FIR and the parties are not involved or declared proclaimed offender in any other criminal case.

The Illaqa Magistrate/Duty Magistrate shall send his report through learned Sessions Judge concerned on or before the date fixed before this Court.”

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that the husband of respondent No.2 as well as her mother-in-law have since expired and there are only three accused remaining in the present case i.e. the petitioners herein. All the petitioners have entered into a written compromise with respondent No.2 on 17.02.2023 (Annexure P-2) and as per the compromise all the disputes stand resolved between the parties.

4. Pursuant to the order dated 01.06.2023, a report dated 27.09.2023 of the Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Nakodar has been received by this Court wherein it has been stated that the statements of the parties have been recorded and the parties have stated that they have compromised the matter voluntarily without any threat, pressure, undue influence or fraud and that the complainant/respondent No.2 has no objection to the quashing of the present FIR. Statements of the parties have also been appended with the report.

5. The Apex Court in the case of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab & Anr. [2012 (10) SCC 303] has held as under :

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court. In what cases power to quash the criminal proceeding or complaint or F.I.R may be exercised where the offender and victim have settled their dispute would depend on the facts and circumstances of each case and no category can be prescribed. However, before exercise of such power, the High Court must have due regard to the nature and gravity of the crime. Heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity, etc. cannot be fittingly quashed even though the victim or victim's family and the offender have settled the dispute. Such offences are not private in nature and have serious impact on society. Similarly, any compromise between the victim and offender in relation to the offences under special statutes like Prevention of Corruption Act or the offences committed by public servants while working in that capacity etc; cannot provide for any basis for quashing criminal proceedings involving such offences. But the criminal cases having overwhelmingly and pre-dominantly civil flavour stand on different footing for the purposes of quashing, particularly the offences arising from commercial, financial, mercantile, civil, partnership or such like transactions or the offences arising out of matrimony relating to dowry, etc. or the family disputes where the wrong is basically private or personal in nature and the parties have resolved their entire dispute. In this category of cases, High Court may quash criminal proceedings if in its view, because of the compromise between the offender and victim, the possibility of conviction is remote and bleak and continuation of criminal case would put accused to great oppression and prejudice and extreme injustice would be caused to him by not quashing the criminal case despite full and complete settlement and compromise with the victim. In other words, the High Court must consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceeding or continuation of the criminal proceeding would tantamount to abuse of process of law despite settlement and compromise between the victim and wrongdoer and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate that criminal case is put to an end and if the answer to the above question(s) is in affirmative, the High Court shall be well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceeding.”

6. Learned counsel for the petitioners has also referred to the law laid down by this Court in Kulwinder Singh & Ors. vs. State of Punjab & Anr. [2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052] wherein it has been held that even in non-compoundable offences, if the parties have entered into a compromise, this Court has wide powers under Section 482 CrPC to quash the proceedings to prevent abuse of law and secure the ends of justice.

7. In view of the above and keeping in view the report by the Trial Court that the parties have genuinely entered into a compromise and all the disputes between the parties have been resolved, it would not be in the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceedings.

8. Resultantly, FIR No.85 dated 26.05.2012 registered under Sections 406, 498-A of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, at Police Station Shahkot, District Jalandhar is quashed, including all subsequent proceedings arising out of the said FIR, on the basis of compromise dated 17.02.2023 (Annexure P-2).

9. The petition is accordingly allowed. Pending applications, if any, also stand disposed off.
