VIKAS BAHL, J. (ORAL)

1. This criminal writ petition has been filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India for the issuance of a writ, order or direction especially in the nature of mandamus to respondents No.2 and 3 for protection of life and liberty of the petitioner.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that since no incident has taken place since the last three years, thus, the present petition be disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous, but liberty be granted to the petitioner to approach the police authorities for protection of life and liberty in case any such incident takes place in future.

3. In view of the above-said statement of learned counsel for the petitioner, the present criminal writ petition is disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous, with liberty to the petitioner to approach police authorities for protection of life and liberty, in case any untoward incident takes place in the future.

4. In case any such representation is filed by the petitioner, the police authorities would consider the same independently in accordance with law.
