ANOOP CHITKARA, J. (ORAL)

The present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. for the protection of life and liberty of the petitioners and for the issuance of directions to respondents No. 1 to 4 not to harass the petitioners.

2. Counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are senior citizens and son of the petitioners is married but his relations to them are not good and they disinherited him. He further submits that son of the petitioners is living with his in-laws family as Ghar Jawai. However, respondent No. 5 along with other pressurising them to pay for the mis-deed of their son.

3. Counsel for respondent No. 5 on instructions submits that there is no need to afraid from him and whatever action he wants to take, he shall take in accordance with law.

4. State counsel submits that police is protector and they have no reason to harass the petitioners. In case, they have any grievance, they can file representation to higher authority for redressal of the same.

5. Given such statement, the present petition stands disposed of. Liberty is reserved to the petitioners to file a fresh representation to the concerned Superintendent of Police, in case of any fresh threat perceptions. It is clarified that in case any such application is filed, the same be decided on top most priority and not later than four days as petitioners are senior citizens. All pending miscellaneous applications, if any, stand disposed of.
