CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK GUPTA

Present:- Mr. Akshit Aggarwal, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Randhir Singh, Addl. A.G., Haryana.

Mr. Krishan Singh, Advocate for the respondent No.4.

DEEPAK GUPTA, J.(Oral)

By way of this petition, prayer has been made to quash the impugned notice dated 29.06.2022 issued by respondent No.4, whereby the petitioners were called to submit their documents/permits for running the plywood factory. Allegations are also there regarding harassment from time to time.

As per status report filed by the respondent-State, by way of affidavit of Rajiv Kumar, Deputy Superintendent of Police-I, Yamuna Nagar on behalf respondent Nos.1 to 3, action has already been taken against respondent No.4 for issuing impugned notice, indirectly implying that the impugned notice was illegal.

Short prayer made by learned counsel of the petitioners is to initiate appropriate proceedings against respondent No.4 for harassment of the petitioners by him, instead of simply giving a warning to him.

This petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent Nos.1 to 3 to initiate appropriate proceedings against respondent No.4.
