All the sentences were ordered to run concurrently.

2. Three separate appeals were preferred before the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Ferozpur. The petitioner preferred appeal No.04 of 2016. Vide judgment dated 26.09.2017, the Additional Sessions Judge, Ferozpur disposed of all the three appeals vide a common order. While the conviction was upheld, the respondents were ordered to be released on probation on furnishing requisite bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety each in the like amount with an undertaking to appear and receive the sentence and when called within a period of 06 months and in the meantime to keep peace and be of good behaviour. The amount of fine of Rs.500/- each (4500/- in all) already deposited by the accused in the Trial Court was ordered to be converted into cost of litigation. Out of this amount of Rs.4500/- i.e. 500/- each deposited by these nine convicts in the Trial Court an amount of Rs.3000/- was ordered to be paid to the complainant-Harbans Lal as compensation. The convicts were to furnish requisite probation bonds within a period of 01 month.

3. Against the aforementioned judgment, the complainant-Harbans Lal preferred this revision petition challenging the granting of probation to respondent No.2 and seeking enhancement of sentence including sentence of imprisonment to be awarded.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that an order of probation could only have been passed after receipt of report from Probation

Officer. He relies on the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court titled as MCD Versus State of Delhi and another, 2005(3) RCR (Criminal) 13.

5. The learned counsel for the State has supported the case of the petitioner contending that the sentence of respondent No.2 be enhanced from grant of probation to the awarding of sentence of imprisonment.

6. On the other hand, the learned counsel for respondent No.2 has placed reliance on the judgments of this Court in Rajinder Singh Versus State of Haryana & others passed in CRM-M-249-2013 dated 27.08.2018 to contend that once the probation period is over the present petition has been rendered infructuous.

7. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties at length.

8. This Court in Rajinder Singh Versus State of Haryana & others passed in CRM-M-249-2013 dated 27.08.2018, held as under:-

“The judgment of the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Kaithal is dated 27.10.2012, thus, respondent No.2 and 3 have already undergone sentence of probation imposed upon them and, therefore, no reason arises for me to go into the legality or propriety of the impugned judgment.

The present petition stands disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.”

9. In the present case, the judgment of the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Ferozpur is dated 26.09.2017 and therefore, the respondent Nos.2 to 9 have already undergone the sentence of probation imposed upon them. Therefore, there is no requirement for this Court to go into the legality or propriety of the impugned judgment.
