Honey Nagar & Others

...Petitioner(s)

Vs.

State of Punjab & Another

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present: - Mr. Munish Khanngwal, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Kunwarbir Singh, AAG Punjab.

Mr. Sandeep Godara, Advocate for
Mr. Aditya, Advocate for respondent No.2.

NIDHI GUPTA, J.

The prayer in this petition is for quashing of FIR No.57 dated 19.12.2017 (Annexure P-1) under Sections 498-A and 406 IPC and Section 3(1) SC/ST Act, 1989 registered at Police Station Women, District Bathinda and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise/affidavit dated 24.05.2023 (Annexure P-2) arrived at between the parties.

Vide order dated 03.07.2023 this Court had directed the parties to appear before Illaqa Magistrate for getting their statements recorded in terms of certain parameters given in the aforesaid order dated 03.07.2023 with regard to the compromise/affidavit dated 24.05.2023 (Annexure P-2).

In terms of the order dated 03.07.2023 passed by this Court parties have appeared before the Court of Dr. Ram Kumar Singla, Additional District and Sessions Judge, Bathinda and as per his report dated 11.08.2023 submitted to this Court, both the parties have got recorded their respective statements in Court.

A perusal of the above said report would show that the petitioners and respondent No.2 have appeared and suffered statements with respect to the compromise, which have been found to be voluntary, genuine, and out of free will.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has further submitted that the petitioners were not declared proclaimed offenders in the present case and all the accused are a party to the compromise.

Learned State Counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed on the basis of compromise qua the petitioners.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 has again reiterated that the matter has been settled and the said compromise is in the interest of all the persons and would help in bringing out peace and amity between the two parties.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file.

After perusing the report submitted by the Illaqa Magistrate, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioners and the complainant. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the proceedings where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, this petition is allowed and FIR No.57 dated 19.12.2017 (Annexure P-1) under Sections 498-A and 406 IPC and Section 3(1) SC/ST Act, 1989 registered at Police Station Women, District Bathinda along with all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise, are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioners.

Petition stands disposed of.

Pending application(s) if any also stand(s) disposed of.
